

The Financial Express

IBPS PO Mains Exam Result 2016: Results to be declared on the first week of December

IBPS PO Mains Exam Result 2016: For the recruitment of the probationary officers among candidates of 2016, the Institute of Banking and Personal Examination (IBPS) will be declaring the IBPS Clerk Mains Result in the first week of December. The candidates who had appeared the IBPS Clerk Mains Examinations after being qualified in the IBPS Clerk Prelims Exam 2016, will be receiving the results of the IBPS Probationary Officers' Common Written Exams Mains (IBPS PO CWE Mains 2016) in December, as advertised officially. The results will be available only on the IBPS official site, www.ibps.in.

While IBPS PO Mains is considered as the most crucial phase in the recruitment process, candidates qualifying the test will have to undergo a Common Interview which will be conducted in 22 Public Sector Banks in the country and the candidates will be called on the basis of their names in the merit list. The admit card of the qualified students in the IBPS PO CWE Mains exam, for the Common Interview, will be released at IBPS official website in January 2016.

The interview, conducted by the Participating Organizations and Nodal Bank in each state/UT, with IBPS, will be organised at various pr-decided centers, the detail of which will be available at the official website of IBPS. While the full marks for the interview is 100, minimum score of candidates to qualify the interview is 40, while for reserve category candidates it is 35.