

Times of India

Over half of judges' posts in Calcutta HC vacant

KOLKATA: Calcutta high court has 34 judges and the rest 38 posts out of the 72 sanctioned posts are vacant, West Bengal law minister Moloy Ghatak told the House on Tuesday.

He was speaking about why a large number of cases are either pending at the court or are delayed.

Ghatak said as per rule one-third of the vacancies are filled up through promotion from the judicial service and the rest two-third through induction from the senior practising lawyers.